Windmill Weekend

Sunday September 9th on the Green and Parade on the 10th @ 10 a.m—11 a.m. (Note corrected time).

We are looking to get at least 25 of our 250 member dogs in the parade. That should be a MINIMUM. Time was that we got that number easily, but the last two parades saw a decline in our number of marchers. Frankly, it was a little embarrassing.

Those walking with our Dog Owner's had a great time. Smiling faces and happy dogs passed along the phalanx of parade watchers. Treats were given out and a few invited a quick petting.

Last year our numbers were too small. It was not representative of the number of enthusiastic, and dedicated members in our organization. There was little hoopla to accompany our adorable float.

This is the same group that elicited hundreds of letters and signatures of support when called upon to defend usage of Wiley park. We showed our strength in numbers then. We want to keep that momentum going by showing our numbers in this happy and most public display.

Please join us. We realize that there are limitations that prevent many otherwise willing. To those we say "thank you" for supporting EDOA in the many ways that you do.

Bring your kids. They love to pass out the treats and parade the dogs. Bring along friends and their dogs too. If you are able, please join the parade. It is one easy mile.

We ask that you sign-up so that we can prepare the handouts for you. We will keep you updated on info and changes.

Our new ACO

Meet Officer Stephanie Sykes, our new Natural Resources officer and Animal Control Officer. With her is her dog Kody, a six year old Labrador retriever.

We look forward to seeing them both again in October at our Annual Meeting.

All are invited to get acquainted and hear of Stephanie's plans in her new position.

Next up: Bow Wow Bash

Mark the calendar: September 17th at Campground Beach 12 noon to 2 P.M.

Plans are made and your crack team of volunteers is busy making it all happen.

Join your town dog owners for a celebration of dogs at our FREE bash on the beach. The tide will just be coming in so get their early to enjoy a little more room and also to get those grilled dogs before they run out.

Old and New:

Check out our brand new line of EDOA branded clothing and other gear. Sign-up for your 2024 membership (new or renew) and get a free gift. There will a clearance table too.

Besides the free dogs of all kinds, there will be other surprises and treats.

Bring a lawn chair and a soft drink of your choice. (Health Dept rules preclude us serving water except for dogs.)

(No puppy dogs were hurt in the making of this event.)
